

ALABAMA ASSOCIATION OF FAMILY, CAREER AND COMMUNITY LEADERS OF AMERICA

BYLAWS

REVISED MAY 2011

ARTICLE I NAME, SPONSORS, GOAL, PURPOSES

Section 1 – Name

The name of this organization shall be the Alabama Association, Family, Career and Community Leaders of America. Members shall be referred to as Family, Career and Community Leaders of America. The letters FCCLA may be used to designate the organization units or members thereof. The name Family, Career and Community Leaders of America shall be used by the state association and the affiliated chapters in Alabama.

Section 2 – Sponsors

The sponsors of the organization are the United States Department of Education and the American Family and Consumer Sciences Association. In Alabama, the sponsor is the Family and Consumer Sciences Education Section, Office of Career and Technical Education, State Department of Education, Montgomery, Alabama.

Section 3 – Mission Statement and Purposes

A. Mission Statement

The mission of Family, Career and Community Leaders of America is to promote personal growth and leadership development through family and consumer sciences education. Focusing on the multiple roles of family member, wage earner, and community leader, members develop skills for life through:

- character development;
- creative and critical thinking;
- interpersonal communications;
- practical knowledge; and
- Career and Technical preparation.

B. Purposes

Organized instruction relating to the mission is a part of the family and consumer sciences program in the schools. The purposes of the organization shall be as follows:

1. To provide opportunities for personal development and preparation for adult life.
2. To strengthen the function of the family as a basic unit of society.
3. To encourage democracy through cooperative action in the home and community.
4. To encourage individual and group involvement in helping achieve global cooperation and harmony.
5. To promote greater understanding between youth and adults.
6. To provide opportunities for making decisions and for assuming responsibilities.

7. To prepare for the multiple roles of men and women in today's society.
8. To promote family and consumer sciences, family and consumer sciences careers and related occupations.

ARTICLE II ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

Section 1 – State Association

The state association of the Family, Career and Community Leaders of America shall consist of all local affiliated FCCLA chapters within the boundaries of the State of Alabama. For the state association to remain in good standing as a national chartered association, policies shall be maintained consistent with those of the national organization and records shall be sent to the national headquarters as stated in the bylaws of the national organization.

Section 2 – State Headquarters

The state headquarters shall be located in the Family and Consumer Sciences program area in the office of Career and Technical Education, Alabama State Department of Education.

Section 3 – Affiliated Chapters

A chapter may be affiliated in public and private schools in which family and consumer sciences instruction is offered. The chapter shall be composed of students possessing the qualifications for membership.

A. Organization

A chapter shall be organized as an integral part of each family and consumer sciences education instructional program and served by each family and consumer sciences teacher as an adviser or co-adviser. A chapter may be organized in other public and private schools whenever in the judgment of the teachers, students and administrators, it would be advantageous to do so.

B. Annual Affiliation

Annual affiliation shall be made directly to the national office on forms provided by the national organization. Application, together with the total state and national affiliation dues for each member, shall be sent to the national office.

C. Certificates

A newly formed chapter shall be issued a certificate of affiliation through the state association upon submitting state and national membership dues and required information to the state association.

D. Membership Cards

Membership cards shall be provided annually by the national organization for each member and shall be distributed by the national office.

Section 4 – Membership Qualifications

A. Active Members

Any student who is taking or has taken a course in family and consumer sciences and career preparation/career connections through grade twelve and has paid annual state and national membership dues, shall be eligible for active membership in an organized chapter within the school. Only active members shall be eligible to hold office, to make motions and to vote.

B. Alumni & Associates Membership

Former active members and other adults who share the goals and purposes of Family, Career and Community Leaders of America and its programs and who wish to support the continuing development of FCCLA youth, shall be eligible for Alumni & Associates membership. Members of Alumni & Associates shall not be eligible to hold office, make motions, or vote.

C. State Honorary Membership

Any individual whose professional responsibilities are not directly related to the Family, Career and Community Leaders of America, who has made outstanding contributions, and who is giving continuing service by advancing the state organization purposes, shall be eligible for honorary membership in the state association. Honorary members shall be elected by a majority vote at a meeting of the State Executive Council based upon criteria and policies established by this body. Honorary members may be nominated by the State Executive Council, affiliated chapters and local, district and state advisers. Honorary members may be invited to attend meetings, but shall have no vote.

ARTICLE III DUES, FISCAL YEAR, BUDGET, AUDIT

Section 1 – Dues

A. National

The amount of national dues for active members shall be determined by the National Executive Council and National Board of Directors subject to the approval of the voting delegates at a national meeting. National dues for each active member shall be sent to the national headquarters.

B. State

The amount of state dues for active members shall be determined by the State Executive Council and Advisory Board subject to approval by local chapters. The designated amount shall be paid by each student wishing to be a member of the state association regardless of the time of year the dues are paid. Dues for active state and national membership shall be sent to the national office by the local chapters.

C. Alumni & Associates Members

The amount of national dues for the Alumni & Associates member category shall be determined by the National Executive Council and National Board of Directors. The amount of state dues for the Alumni & Associates shall be determined by the State Executive Council.

D. State Honorary Members

State honorary members pay no dues.

E. Local Chapters

The chapter executive council may determine local membership dues subject to approval by the chapter members. These dues will be in addition to state and national dues.

Section 2 – Fiscal Year

The fiscal year shall be July 1 - June 30.

Section 3 – Budget

The budget shall be prepared by the state adviser and presented to the State Executive Council for approval.

Section 4 – Audit
