

December 22, 2021

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HOTEL BLOCK EXPANDED FOR 2022 ALACTE SUMMER CONFERENCE

[Montgomery, AL] – On December 1, 2021, the hotel reservation portal was made available for ALACTE’s 2022 Professional Development Conference, hosted from July 20-22, 2022, in Mobile, Alabama.

ACCOMODATIONS & BOOKING: Alabama Association for Career and Technical Education has negotiated reduced hotel rates at Renaissance Battle House and Renaissance Riverview for attendees from July 19-23, 2022. At the Renaissance Battle House, double queen rooms will cost $162.00/night and single king rooms will cost $152.00/night, excluding applicable taxes and fees. At the Renaissance Riverview, double queen rooms will cost $162.00, excluding applicable taxes and fees. Conference attendees can access the hotel reservation portal here.

ADDITIONAL HOTEL SPACE: Due to record-breaking need in our hotel block for this year’s conference, Alabama Association for Career and Technical Education has negotiated reduced rates for additional rooms at Hampton Inn and Suites Mobile – Downtown Historic District from July 19-23, 2022. Single king rooms will cost $139/night and double queen rooms will range in cost from $139-159/night, depending on selected amenities and excluding applicable taxes and fees. Attendees can make reservations at the Hampton Inn by visiting this link.

ABOUT MOBILE: As the home of Mardi Gras, Mobile has a way of celebrating all its own. The city is a melting pot of people, flavors, cultures, and traditions – all representing one voice to lead all of life's best moments. Join ALACTE in-person in the epicenter of southern charm, culture, and hospitality for this year's Professional Development Conference.

During your stay you can dine in one of the hundreds of restaurants throughout the city, explore countless cultural and historical landmarks, or simply enjoy part of your day on an endless stretch of white sand coastline. With 300 years of history to explore and countless recreational offerings, Mobile is the premiere city for this year's conference.

The City of Mobile was "born to celebrate." We are ready to celebrate with our CTE family!

For more information about our host city, as well as a promotional video, please visit <https://www.thisismobileal.com/>.

SAFETY: As a reminder, Alabama Association for Career and Technical Education will abide by all future and currently applicable local, state, and federal laws for in-person gatherings. At the time of our event, these laws may include masking, social distancing, precautionary changes to the service of food and beverage items, and more. While ALACTE anticipates a return to normalcy by 2022, Association members should be mindful of relevant changes to our current public health circumstances. Safety protocols will be communicated on a rolling basis via email and on ALACTE.org.

REGISTRATION: Amid a time of immense uncertainty, ALACTE's commitment to Alabama's educators and learners remains steadfast. Please consider registering for this year's conference as our communities continue another year of learning, both virtually and in-person. Conference registration will open on ALACTE.org in early January 2022. Questions can be directed to the staff contact below.

Staff Contact: Zack Love
Conference Planning Liaison
zacklove80@gmail.com

Ann Gilmore
ALACTE Executive Director
alacte@yahoo.com

###